

Auction rules: online bidding closes at 6pm on Friday 25th September, after which no further online bids will be counted. The highest online bid at that point becomes the opening bid at the party, where guests can submit further bids, and the highest bid for each item wins it. Items are sold as described and as seen, all bids are binding, and the auctioneer's decision is final.